Social and Personal

The leading society event of the week will be the Christmas dance of the Richmond German Club, which will take place to-night at 8:30 o'clock in the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel, Colonel J. Lane Stern leading. It will be a brilliant affair, and a great many out-of-town guests will be in attendance. There will be novelty favors and all sorts of fascinating holiday decorations in keeping with the season. A number of the married members of the club make it a point to attend the Christmas Monday each year, and the occasion is always the most interesting and charming.

Guest of Mrs. Keith.
Miss Katherine Groner, of Norfolk, a debutante of the season, arrived in Richmond on Saturday to be the guest of Mrs. Juliet Chilton Keith at her home on Cathedral Place. Mrs. Keith will be at home informally to her friends on New Year's, and a number of interesting parties have been planned for Miss Groner during her stay in the city.

Prominent Wedding.
Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Lucille Stern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Stern, to Walter I. Gans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gans, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening, January 1st, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Richmond Hotel. Miss Stern made her debut last year, and is prominent in Richmond society. Mrs. S. W. Gans, of Washington, grandmother of the bridegroom-to-be, who has just celebrated her ninetieth birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gans and Miss Ricka Gans, of Washington, together with many relatives from other cities, will attend the wedding.

Mr. Scott's Luncheon.
Frederick W. Scott entertained more than 100 of his friends at a buffet luncheon at his home, 509 West Franklin street, on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The house was beautifully decorated with big baskets of crimson flowers, palms and bay trees, with tall silver vases of red roses on the luncheon table. There was a charming informality about the whole affair, each guest being cordially received by Mr. Scott.

Invitations Recalled.
William S. Archer has recalled the invitations to the wedding of his daughter, Liesa Bolling Archer, on account of the illness of George Russell Talcott, the groom-to-be. The ceremony, which had been announced for December 23, postponed until spring.

Upton-Smith.
The marriage of Miss Nannie Bowman Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Robert Lee Smith, of Chapel Hill, N. C., and Luther Jarvis Upton, son of Mrs. Caroline V. Upton and the late John Upton, of Norfolk, was quietly celebrated at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Archer Pope, in Norfolk. The bride's father and Dr. James Nelson, president of the Woman's College here, performed the ceremony in the presence of the two families and a few intimate friends. Decorations were in palms, lighted candles and Southern smilax, and the table in the dining-room was set with a basket of Louisiana roses caught with pink tulle.

The bride entered the drawing-room with her brother, W. H. L. Smith, Jr., of Richmond, who gave her away. Her wedding gown was fashioned of soft white tulle, embroidered in pearls and made with a tunic of chiffon, trimmed in rose point lace. Her long tulle veil fell from a Juliet cap of real lace and a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. Her only ornament was the groom's gift, a diamond and pearl pendant. Mrs. Archer Pope was the bridesmaid.
